THE WINE EXPERIENCE

“Wine is bottled poetry.”

Robert Louis Stevenson

Wine tasting is the sensory examination and evaluation of wine. This experience asks for a serene ambiance, which contributes for the accuracy of senses,necessary to relish the wine’s aromas and flavors. The glass shape has a major influence on the perception of the different characteristics of each wine. But some wines need to be decanted before tasted, in order to allow the wine to breathe and release its bouquet. A glass of wine always asks for an intimate ambient. Elegant restaurants or casual bistros, fancy hotels or modern wine bars, the glassware variety available is suitable for any contemporary space.

ROMANTIC AMBIANCES

“Romance is the glamour which turns the dust of everyday life into a golden haze.”

Carolyn Gold Heilbrun

A romantic dinner requires a glamorous ambiance; the right place with the perfect lighting, some nice music, delicious food and drink. Exquisite glassware might be considered a small detail, but can really make the difference and impress your couple.

Romantic living rooms, traditional manor houses, charming cottages, trendy hotels or classic restaurants: timeless ambients where past and present coexist through the smallest details.

VINTAGE GLAMOUR

“The challenge of history is to recover the past and introduce it to the present”

David Thelen

Since the beginning of the decade, we have witnessed a booming of the vintage style. Deep-rooted in the market, this trend emphasizes the glamour of the roaring 1920’s and reminds the nostalgic speakeasy bars from the prohibition era. A refined good taste, expressed through the sophisticated design of cut glass imitation and the conservative patterns of diamonds, with a contemporary twist. Fancy vintage restaurants, colonial style hotels or neo-retro living rooms: timeless atmospheres transporting us to the enchantment of past decades.

VERSATILE VARIETY

"Nothing is pleasant that is not spiced with variety."

Francis Bacon

Glassware is used at home for completely different purposes. From serving a single drink to preparing a salad or a dessert, from baking to decoration, from cooking to flower and candle, there's always glassware in every moment of every day. In2One is the most diverse range of items from the portfolio. A variety of new pieces for different uses is joining the existing tumbler range. An ice cream cup, salad and dessert bowls, or a versatile stemware shape, that can be used either for wine or water.

THE COFFEE SCENE

"Coffee: the favorite drink of the civilized world."

Thomas Jefferson

Coffee has turned into a lifestyle! All over Europe, drinking a coffee became a social act. Seductive and stylish, yet technical, the science of coffee is injecting a new dimension on how it's served in a café, at home or even at the office. The perfect coffee serve and cold coffee drinks are the new market trends.

An extension of the Acapulco range, with a new espresso cup, was necessary to face the needs of the market and fill a gap in hot drinks items. A versatile range with a modern design, perfect to serve coffee, tea, cappuccino or latte macchiato and fits any ambiance.

TINY IS TRENDY

"Handle the little things well;
for they become the great things."

Flo Falayi

Oversized drinks are no longer trendy. Drinks are getting smaller and nowadays mini cocktails appear on more bar menus than ever before. These "tiny" drinks were actually normal in the 1940's. Having a cocktail used to be more about sipping and enjoying the flavors, rather than drinking as much as possible.

Often considered expensive drinks, cocktail consumption was affected by the crisis. So, bartenders had to become more creative and, inspired by the 1940's, brought mini cocktails back to life.

That was also the inspiration for a new range of short glasses designed to serve mini cocktails, mini desserts or appetizers.

STEMWARE

PORTFOLIO

Libbey Portugal portfolio includes glassware products suitable for every customer, despite the business area, market segment or region.

The production capabilities offer a wide range of possibilities: from blown and fix-blown pieces to pressed items and stemware.

Stemware ranges vary from modern chic 2 piece stemware to sturdy vintage look pressed items. Elegant high-stem glasses suitable for northern european countries and low-stem ranges more appropriate for Mediterranean cultures.

Two piece stemware ranges with a cracked-off rim and thicker walls offering an extra breakage resistance, a very important feature especially for the beer segment, which justifies the amount of different shapes for this market.

There are moments in life made for certain types of wine. A wine must be strategically chosen for the feeling, mood and circumstance of each moment. Champagne and sparkling wines are suited to celebrations and happy times. Light wines are wonderful for hot days, when you just need something fresh. Reds tend to be more romantic and perfect for a cold winter’s night, while whites are great for more formal ambiances.

Wine should be cautiously selected to pair the food it will be enjoyed with. An overpowering wine can diminish the enjoyment from light meals and even mask the taste of certain foods. The opposite also happens; light wines will be practically eliminated by the taste of heavier meals. A careful balance will enhance the taste of the wine and the meal together.

Beer is the oldest fermented drink in the world. There are three major types of beer: ales, lagers and lambics. Ales (top fermenting) include amber and pale ales, stouts or wheat beer. Lagers (bottom fermenting) include bocks and pale lagers. Lambic (wild fermented), far less popular than the others, tend to become boutique beer. Numerous other special varieties are produced using different blends of ingredients and additional flavors. If you are a beer lover, go to a specialized beer pub, try different types of beer to find out which is your favorite and enjoy the moment.

A selfie is more than a self-portrait photograph; it's an act of visual culture that shows how you're feeling, where you are, what you're doing and whom you're with. It clearly communicates more than words.

Initially used by young people to post on social media, selfies gained wider popularity over time as our social lives become more electronic. So, why not take a selfie with friends on your favourite pub and share that moment of happiness with the world outside?

To get away from daily routine, who doesn’t wish to go on a vacation to a tropical paradise? For sure that everybody, at least once, has dreamt of a summer holiday in a luxury villa at the Caribbean, or an all-inclusive five star resort in a South Pacific island. Imagine yourself laying on a sunbed, next to a huge swimming pool, getting tanned and lulled by the rhythm of the ocean breeze against the palm trees.

A birthday party or a barbecue in the garden, a seaside summer lunch or Christmas dinner at home, any reason or occasion is good to spend time with the family. A typical family reunion around the table is always a moment to celebrate the good things in life: remember old stories, laugh about bad jokes, sing traditional songs or play cards together.

During winter there are some really cold but sunny weekends, when you don't feel like doing anything. You just want to spend all day at home, laying in the couch, watching the complete new season of your favorite series. Or then sit in a comfortable chair and read a good book, enjoying the silence. Perfect moments that you just want to enjoy and relax from a rough week at work.

The arôme tumblers have been carefully designed to regulate the amount of alcohol released from the drink. A proper shape to serve cognacs and bandies, its convex area near the rim prevent any burning sensation in the nose, impacting the olfactory properties and allowing the aromatic complexity of the drink to stand out.

Each craft beer experience is a moment of pure pleasure that gives the beer lover something to remember.

Tastings of specific types of food and drink became quite common and are no longer exclusive for experts. The human palate has been challenged to taste ingredients like cheese, chocolate, tea or coffee. Although wine is the obvious choice, nowadays beer, especially craft beer, is the most required drink for tastings. Craft beer is treasured by millions around the world and offers a multitude of flavors and styles that makes it an intellectual beverage to be savored, not swilled.

Cold brewing is the new trend on the European coffee scene. Cold brewed coffee is much less acidic, compared to brewing with hot water. The long soaking time (7 hours) brings out some of the rounder, fruity notes, not always tasted in hot coffee.

COMPLEMENTS & OTHERS

PORTFOLIO

Besides stemware, tumblers and mugs, Libbey Portugal portfolio contains a variety of glassware complements, including ice cream and dessert cups, salad bowls, shot glasses, aperitive dishes and ashtrays.

Most of the pieces are pressed items, with an extra breakage resistance which makes them perfect for the hospitality universe.

Children are always eager for sweets, candies or ice cream. Anything sweetened seems to awaken their desire constantly. But there is also lots of sweet tooth amongst adults. Three in five people confess to have a weakness for sweets. A downtown walk on a Sunday morning can be a hard time for a sweet lover. Everywhere there's store windows displaying their most delicious cakes, sweets, chocolates or ice creams. A total challenge for an adult that wants to resist the temptation of eating one more sweet, or the most expected moment of the week, for a kid that is only allowed to eat candies on weekends.

When people imagine a flair bartender, they immediatly think of Tom Cruise’s character in the hit film “Cocktail”. But flair bartending is more than just juggling bottles, shakers and making little tricks with ice. Essentially, an acrobatic barman is an artist with skills to impress a customer, providing extra dazzle and excitement to a drinking experience. Exhibiting acrobatic maneuvers he mixes, shakes and whips up fabulous cocktails, while plays around with flammable liquors and even performs occasional magic tricks.
